MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Acting Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: John H. Waller
Inspector General

SUBJECT: Inspection Report on the Office of Communications

1. Attached is the report of our inspection of the Office of Communications. It details our findings and the ten recommendations that derive from them.

2. Basically, we found that the Office is well-staffed, effective, and proud--yet confronted with problems that have become serious in today's environment and promise to become more serious in the future. Personnel-related problems are primary.

3. Comments on the report have been received from the Acting Deputy Director for Administration and from the Director of Communications. Their comments have led us to make changes in the report, either to accommodate points we found valid or to explain more fully. In a separate paper to the Acting Deputy Director for Administration, we have responded to all of their comments in detail.
